Wednesday, April 16
Grey Rock Room

8:30 - 9:30 a.m.
Debt Management and Budgeting
- Budgeting and creative ways to reduce spending
- Learn about credit reports, scores and maintaining good credit
- Importance of saving for retirement and impacts of accessing funds pre-retirement (such as loans)

Who should attend:
Faculty/Admin Pros and State Classified Employees

Presented by: Sam Casad

10:00 - 11:00 a.m.
Women to Women Workshop
- Identify your ‘retirement vision’ and goals
- Defines steps to get your finances on track
- Challenges facing women and how to overcome them

Who should attend:
Women who are Faculty/Admin Pros and State Classified Employees

Presented by: Teresa Cobucci

11:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.
College Savings
- Real costs of higher education
- Creative ways to fund education
- Differences and features of various savings options

Who should attend:
Faculty/Admin Pros and State Classified Employees

Presented by: Sam Casad

1:00 - 2:00 p.m.
Genworth: Group Long Term Care
- NEW voluntary long term care for benefits eligible Faculty and Admin Pros
- Learn how long term care insurance can pay for services in the event of an accident or illness requiring in-home or assisted-living care

Who should attend:
Faculty/Admin Pros who are benefits eligible

Presented by: Amy Cook

2:30 - 3:30 p.m.
Healthy Lifestyles: Wellness for Faculty & Admin Pros
- NEW Healthy Lifestyles program focusing on well-being and how to keep wellness goals
- Interactive tour of Healthy Lifestyles and how to earn rewards

Who should attend:
Faculty/Admin Pros enrolled in an Anthem plan

Presented by: Paula Wilson

Enrollment begins 3/31/14